“ I was fortunate to meet Agnes a few years ago at our gentle yoga class in Neptune City. It was my pleasure to know this lovely gracious woman. I attended her beautiful memorial service today and it was evident how much love was in the room. She will be missed by all. My sympathy to her family.

“ How shall I began...my Aunt Agnes. Always so thoughtful and so kind. She would tell me so many stories of her and my mom (Doris) hanging out together and having a great time. She loved my mom, she loved me and she loved her Aunt Ida my grandmother. I didn't know until today that she was a social worker. Wow, so many social workers in our family. It just shows how great of a family we have. Always kind, always supportive, always happy and smiling and always loving. I thank god for giving me the opportunity to know and love my dear Aunt Agnes. The matriarch of our family. May you rest in piece. I know my father (Jim Scott) and I will see you one day in heaven, but until then be blessed, be happy and be free without sickness, knowing you made your footprint and created a legacy for your children, grand children, siblings cousins and friends. May your spirit ascend unto the heavens and your memory remain with us throughout eternity. I love you, until next time.....your niece Tonja Scott

“ To Karen, Your mom was one of the kindest I've ever had the pleasure of knowing - always the same, and you're just like her !! I was sadden to learn of her passing today - I would see her occasionally at the Neptune City Community Center for exercise class .. may she now rest in everlasting peace with the Lord.

“ I am so very saddened to read the news of Agnes' passing. My heart goes out to you all. I met Agnes over 30 years ago at Unity and got to know her even more deeply at Mindfulness by the Shore. Her warm and gentle love will always be in my heart. She still remembered me every year with a birthday card even though I no longer saw her as often as before. And I am so grateful for the mothering she gave me when I needed it. I will miss her stories, how much she loved her family, and her loving embraces. I know she lives on in me. Loved the beautiful picture of her in this remembrance. I am so sorry I will be unable to attend her memorial in person but I will be there with you in thoughts. Peace. Susan Hoff
