“ I want to send my deepest sympathies to Mickey's sister Mary Ellen and son Michael and family.

We will miss Mickey so much knowing that he was always just at the end of the phone and that he was part of my father's generation, growing up with my grandfather, grandmother, aunts and uncles and of course my own father who he had fond memories of. He is the last link for us to that generation. His love for Clashmealcon, Co Kerry, was always evident in his phone calls and memories always so vivid. No doubt he is with them all now reminiscing about the great times they had together and of course his dear wife Pat. Unfortunately I cant be with ye physically today but am with you all in spirit. Mickey and Pat will always be in my prayers. RIP

“ We send our deepest sympathies to Mary Ellen, Michael, Priscilla, Mac and Jack, our dearest cousins.

We are sorry we can't be with you all today. We have such happy memories of Mickey when he and Pat (RIP) visited us in Ireland many times over the years and also our visit to them 20 years ago when they looked after us so well.

It is no coincidence that Mickey passed on my father's birthday, Mickey O'Connor (RIP) who loved him like a brother. I'm sure they were celebrating together.

We will miss our monthly phone calls from Mickey, but I'm sure he'll be with us in spirit and praying for us.

May his gentle soul rest in peace with all our relations gone before us in God's Heavenly kingdom.

Until we all meet again,
Love,
Maureen, John and family.
